DIRECTORS' LEGAL OBLIGATIONS

DUTY

The Acts in each province impose a duty on every director and officer that they must, in exercising their powers and performing their duties of office:

- a. Act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the co-operative; and,
- b. Exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Otter

These duties are owed exclusively to the co-operative and not to any one or more of the members of the co-operative. Directors cannot place their own private interests in conflict with their duties owed to the co-operative. A director cannot take personal benefit from his/her position and must disclose any conflict or potential conflict to the board in a timely fashion.

BEST INTERESTS

When considering the best interests of the co-operative, directors are expected to consider the interests of the co-operative's members/shareholders as a collective whole rather than thinking only of the cooperative as an abstract legal entity. This means taking into account the interest of all the members/shareholders and not allowing one sectional interest to prevail over all the others. In general, directors and officers act in the co-operative's best interests when they act in ways that maximize profits and take into consideration the interests of all the members/shareholders.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The general principles of director confidentiality are:

- Directors have no obligation to share board minutes or the details of board discussions with anyone outside the board, not even members or employees of the co-operative; and,
- Directors must not share sensitive information from board minutes or board discussions with anyone outside the board, not even members or employees of the co-operative.

As a part of a director's duty of loyalty, they must keep confidential board minutes and the details of board discussions. Any communications from the board should come from the board and not from individual members. Breach of the duty of confidentiality could result in damages to the co-operative for which a director may be found liable.

STATUTORY DUTIES

There are a number of legal requirements whereby a director may be found personally liable. These include potential liability to the co-operative's employees for unpaid wages and liability to the cooperative where the directors have voted to issue shares in the co-operative to someone for less than fair value or where the directors have voted to redeem shares contrary to the Act. Be sure to review the Act in your jurisdiction to determine what specific liability is placed on directors. As well, personal liability can be incurred by a director where the co-operative commits an offence under a number of acts including the Canadian Environmental Protection Act.

GOOD GOVERNANCE

Upon appointment as a director:

- Become familiar with the co-op's policies and the current structure of management;
- Become familiar with the nature and extent of the co-op's articles of incorporation, its bylaws and its organizational objectives;
- Determine the degree to which indemnification of directors is provided through agreement, bylaws and/or through directors' liability insurance.

Otter

On an ongoing basis:

- Attend all or at least the vast majority of board meetings;
- Prior to meetings, ensure you have received and reviewed all documents and reports on which voting is anticipated;
- Review in detail all minutes of meetings and ensure that any clarifications and corrections are brought forward prior to approval;

Review in detail all financial statements and ask questions for clarification:

- Obtain written legal opinions for any action to be taken by the board which is outside the directors' expertise;
- Obtain written professional opinions from specialists on whose advice the board is expected to act;
- Maintain minutes recording any disclosure, dissent or abstention by you or other board members;
- Vote against any expenditures if there is a question about the solvency of the co-operative;
- Inquire on at least an annual basis as to whether the co-operative is up to date on tax payments, EI and CPP remittances;
- Implement controls for the execution of cheques and contracts;
- Comply with the duty of confidentiality;
- Avoid or disclose any conflict of interest in a timely fashion

DIRECTOR TIME COMMITMENTS

1. Attend one Board meeting each month in person
2. Attend an additional 2-5 planning or education sessions per year
3. Represent the Board at Special events such as store openings, socials, and other member engagements opportunities and/or events.
4. Complete the Director Development courses

Board meetings are typically held on the third Wednesday of the month at 5:30 pm. Committee meetings are held at the discretion of the committee. Social events are often held on weekends.

REMUNERATION FOR DIRECTORS

The remuneration for Directors changes on a yearly basis. Currently, Directors receive the following compensation as approved by the members-owners at the annual meeting:

1. President's Monthly Retainer: $865.50
2. Director Rate for Meeting Attendance: $577.00
3. Mileage: .50 cents per KM
